

Goodsill Anderson Quinn & Stifel, one of Hawaii's oldest and largest firms, is actively seeking an English-Japanese bilingual attorney to join the transaction practice of our Firm and expand the service offerings of the Firm in dealing with individual and institutional clients from Japan.

Ideal candidates will have interest or experience in the areas of real estate transactions (sales and acquisition of commercial properties), business transactions (contract negotiations, formation, operations, mergers, sales and acquisitions), licensing work (liquor license, travel agency license, etc.), captive insurance (captive formation and operations) and business immigration (focusing on E and L Visas).

We are particularly interested in hearing from ambitious, motivated, creative and experienced attorneys who have the ability to do challenging real estate, corporate, licensing and immigration work, the personality to be effective dealing with Japan clients and team members, and the potential to achieve excellence in the areas of real estate, corporate, licensing, captive insurance and immigration laws.

Overview

Goodsill has been a part of the Hawaii community since 1878; being a respected business law firm in Hawaii for over a century is the result of our dedication to the legal profession and to our island community. We are a diverse firm providing a full range of legal services in all of the traditional areas of business law plus a number of specialized areas with a strong base of local, national, and international clients. We represent leading financial institutions in both corporate and real estate based loan work.

We offer a collaborative, dynamic work environment, which results in legal work of the highest quality. We seek applicants who will contribute to that environment and strive to bring out the best in those around them. Many of our attorneys are active in community organizations, continuing legal education programs; and the Hawai'i State Bar Association, the American Bar Association, Pacific Rim Advisory Council, Inter-Pacific Bar Association, NAIOP Hawaii, Land Use Research Foundation of Hawaii as well as other professional organizations.

Requirements/Qualifications

JD from an ABA accredited law school

Professional proficiency in written and spoken English and Japanese.

Admission to the Hawaii State Bar

Demonstrated ability to work as part of a team.

If this opportunity is of interest to you, please contact Goodsill Human Resource Manager, Barbara Reuter; we would be happy to speak with you and/or review your resume. Please be assured that all inquiries are kept strictly confidential.