

Accounting Manager

Goodsill Anderson Quinn & Stifel is currently seeking an experienced individual with strong communication, analytical, and organizational skills to manage the firm's accounting functions and support continual improvement in the firm's accounting processes. Responsible for overall management of the accounting department, preparation and retention of accounting records, including but not limited to financial reporting, general ledger, fixed assets, accounts receivables, accounts payables, payroll, budgets, forecasting, cash management, cash flow and tax reporting.

The successful candidate will have strong academic credentials and proven accounting and management experience and skills. Law firm experience strongly desired. Knowledge of Aderant Expert legal accounting software a plus.

We provide a collegial and professional work environment. Salary commensurate with experience and qualifications. Competitive benefits include: Medical insurance coverage, parking, three weeks of vacation annually, sick leave, and professional development programs.

Please submit a PDF or Word version of your cover letter and resume to breuter@goodsill.com.