Jamie was born and raised in Hawaii. She received her Juris Doctor from the University of Hawai'i William S. Richardson School of Law. She was admitted to the bar in Hawai'i and New York.

Jamie will focus her practice in corporate and captive insurance where she will advise clients on business entity formations, mergers and acquisitions, corporate reorganizations, and captive insurance.

Jamie has experience representing public and private multinational corporations and private equity funds in complex business transactions in the automobile manufacturing, telecommunications, software development, and semiconductor industries. Prior to joining the firm, Jamie worked at Nishimura & Asahi and Matsuo & Kosugi in Tokyo, Japan, and a law firm in Honolulu, Hawaii.

Her fluency in the Japanese language will add to the already strong Japanese Practice Group at Goodsill with Alan Fujimoto and Shimpei Oki (partners) and Tanya David (associate), who are also fluent in English and Japanese.

Examples of her work include:
